CHRISTMAS MESSAGE TO PARISHIONERS God's Given Gifts

It is the time of the year that we look back to reflect on what God has done in our life to give our gratitude to the Lord and to those who have been instrumental for the changes in our life.

Looking back on your life, I believe there have been moments that you wonder you were going to make it through to the year. It is also confident that some people sat on this pew who are no longer with us, but whatever misfortune and frustrations came our way we know one thing, that we are alive and blessed by God to be alive.

I am grateful to God for blessing me with Parishioners like you, with a high spirit of volunteerism, the dynamic Parish and Finance Council, the hard-working staff and marvelous groups of individuals who step in to help here and there. Working hard with various ideas of fundraising. Occasionally, of course, some will get on my nerves, but they too are a blessing, Praise God.

Thank you, my parishioners, on your excellent spirit of community, in living together as a family, your spirit of given financially and in kind. I am aware that not all of us can provide those substantial amounts, but I know for sure we all can give, and every dollar counts. Remember what the second book of Samuel says, "I will not offer to God which cost me nothing" (24:24) and keep in mind what St. Paul told the church in Corinth. "Each man (person) should give what he has decided in his heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for the Lord loves a cheerful giver." (2Cor.9:7). I encourage all of you to do the best that you can to support our Regional Parishes. In the coming year St. Mary's will continue to contemplate on how to paint the inside of the church while St. Benedict is thinking about replacing some their air and heat units, growing their numbers and finances. Yes, there is something each time, but God has been good to us, and we are grateful to him.

My gratitude will not be complete without thanking the Organizations, Foundations, other parishes and churches, the individuals outside our congregations who have helped make our school become a school of excellence. This year all 17 students made it through the Third Grade Reading Guarantee test and were promoted to the fourth. To all of you out there I say thank you. You are indeed a blessing to me and the entire parish. I appreciate you sharing with us God's given gift.

We continue to contemplate on our faith journey, as a Region, parish and individually. We continue to collaborate with parishes of Region one in our deanery. I will like you at this Christmas to think about what God has done for you through others, as an individual or a family, pray about this gift(s) and reflect on how best you can share this God-given gift with others and with God. As you were opening the boxes and Parcels under the Christmas tree, did you think about what you have for God under the tree?

As we celebrate this Feast of the Holy Family another way of being thankful to God is to keep in mind those who are raising their children in a difficult situation remembering that God was once a refugee. Today's readings reveal to us that in the midst of all trials, the Holy Family maintained their bond of unity. Can we learn from their examples in the scripture readings today?

I wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy Good New Year!

CHRISTMAS CRÈCHE EXHIBITION

This is the FINAL weekend to visit The University of Dayton to see a "behind-the-(Nativity) scenes" approach to At the Manger, its annual exhibition of Christmas crèches. The exhibit closes on Jan. 5.

The exhibit takes place in the Marian Library's crèche workshop on the fourth floor of Fitz Hall, (1529 Brown St.) where visitors can learn how volunteers plan and construct display settings and clean, repair, pack and store Nativity sets. Crèches also will be on exhibit in two other locations — the Marian Library on campus and at Bergamo/Mount St. John in Beaver-creek.

Feast of the Holy Family

Happy New Year! As we continue to celebrate the birth of Jesus, we turn our attention today to his mother Mary, but we continue to focus on Jesus as well. We give various titles to Jesus such as Savior, Christ, Messiah, Lord, Son of Man, and each of these titles expresses an aspect of our understanding of Jesus. In the same way we give many titles to Our Lady – there is a long list of them in the Litany of Our Lady of Loreto – and the title we celebrate today, “Mother of God,” and the title “Blessed Virgin,” are the two oldest titles given to Our Lady. In one sense, the title Mother of God says more about Jesus than it does about Our Lady. That is why I said we continue to focus on Jesus today also. What does the title Mother of God say about Jesus? It means that the humanity and divinity of Jesus are united in Jesus. There is not a separate human Jesus and a separate divine Jesus, there is one Jesus with a human nature and a divine nature, true God and true man, and because there is one Jesus we say Mary is Mother of God. There was a misunderstanding about this very issue in the fifth century that led to hundreds of bishops meeting in 431 AD during the Council of Ephesus which clarified that it is indeed correct and proper to give the title Mother of God to Our Lady because there is one Jesus with a human nature and a divine nature. Even before that clarification, the title Mother of God had been used by the faithful when describing Our Lady. Following the clarification by the Council of Ephesus that it is right and proper to title Our Lady as Mother of God, many churches were dedicated to Our Lady, and in 432 AD, the year after the Council of Ephesus, the construction of the Basilica of St. Mary Major in Rome was begun which is first in importance in the world as a Marian shrine for pilgrims.

Mother of God! Some would like to know if there is anything in Sacred Scripture, in the Bible, to support the title Mother of God and the clarification by the bishops in the Council of Ephesus. Yes, just as for so many of our Catholic beliefs, there are statements in Scripture that give us the background. We could begin with the second reading today, an excerpt of Paul’s letter to the Galatians, one of his earliest letters, written only about two decades after Jesus and even before the Gospels were written. In today’s excerpt we heard, “God sent his Son, born of a woman.” (Gal 4:4) God the Father sent his Son Jesus into the world and Jesus was born of a woman. This statement from St. Paul supports the title Mother of God, “God sent his Son, born of a woman.” Another helpful statement in Scripture supporting the title Mother of God is in Luke’s Gospel when Mary visits Elizabeth and Elizabeth cries out, “How does it happen that the Mother of my Lord should come to me?” (Luke 1:43) Elizabeth proclaims Mary to be the “Mother of my Lord.” This is indeed very close to Mother of God. She became Mother of God because God had specially prepared her to be the perfect dwelling place for Jesus to grow for the nine months before he was born. We call this special preparation of Our Lady to be the perfect mother of Jesus her Immaculate Conception which we celebrated on December 8th. She is indeed “our tainted nature’s solitary boast” as the poet Wordsworth wrote. We thank Our Lady for becoming the Mother of God we are very happy to venerate Our Lady especially today as Mother of God because we know of her love for us as she comes again and again to help us in places such as Lourdes and Fatima, and we love her in return. Of course, a very good way to show our love for Our Lady in return is to pray the Rosary which would be a beautiful gift to give to Our Lady every day.

But what connection does the first reading have with today? (Num 6:24-27) It gives us the words of the blessings priests used in the temple in Jerusalem as they blessed people at the conclusion of liturgies:

The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you. The Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace (Num 6:24-26)

There are three parts to the blessing, each part longer than the previous, reminding us of our blessing in the name of the Trinity. The Church chose this reading for us today with this blessing because as we begin this New Year we ask God’s blessing on the New Year, and the words of blessing which priests invoked upon their people in the temple echo our prayers to God today that God bless our New Year. Every Mass concludes with the blessing of a priest and if anyone leaves Mass early, that person misses out on the blessing of the priest which is the blessing of Jesus.

As we begin this New Year, we venerate Mary the Mother of God, who was specially prepared by God to be the perfect sinless mother for Jesus while he grew in her womb for the nine months before he was born, “our tainted nature’s solitary boast.” It is indeed correct to call her Mother of God because there is one Jesus with a human nature and a divine nature. We ask God to bless our year ahead in the words which God himself asked priests to use in the temple:

The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you. The Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace by Fr. Tommy Lane
